INTRODUCTION

These model standing orders update the National Association of Local Council (NALC) model standing orders contained in “Local Councils Explained” by Meera Tharmarajah (© 2013 NALC). This publication contains new model standing orders which reference new legislation introduced after 2018 when the last model standing orders were published.

HOW TO USE MODEL STANDING ORDERS

Standing orders are the written rules of a local council. Standing orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of a meeting. A council may also use standing orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The standing orders of a council are not the same as the policies of a council but standing orders may refer to them.

Local councils operate within a wide statutory framework. NALC model standing orders incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which councils are subject. It is not possible for the model standing orders to contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local councils. For example, it is not practical for model standing orders to document all obligations under data protection legislation. The statutory requirements to which a council is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated in a council’s standing orders.

The model standing orders do not include model financial regulations. Financial regulations are standing orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of a local council. The financial regulations, as opposed to the standing orders of a council, include most of the requirements relevant to the council’s Responsible Financial Officer. Model financial regulations are available to councils in membership of NALC.

DRAFTING NOTES

Model standing orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements. It is recommended that councils adopt them without changing them or their meaning. Model standing orders not in bold are designed to help councils operate effectively but they do not contain statutory requirements so they may be adopted as drafted or amended to suit a council’s needs. It is NALC’s view that all model standing orders will generally be suitable for councils.

For convenience, the word “councillor” is used in model standing orders and, unless the context suggests otherwise, includes a non-councillor with or without voting rights.

A model standing order that includes brackets like this ‘ () ’ requires information to be inserted by a council. A model standing order that includes brackets like this ‘ [] ’ and the term ‘OR’ provides alternative options for a council to choose from when determining standing orders.

ADDENDUM

Adaptions have been made to HWPC working practices as per the Amendment Regulations to the Local Authorities and Police and Crime Panels (Coronavirus) (Flexibility of Local Authority and Police and Crime Panel Meetings) (England and Wales) Regulations 2020 (the 2020 Regulations).

Key impact areas are that parish meetings are included within the definition of ‘local authority’ and can meet remotely, the requirement for an annual parish meeting is disapplied for 2020 and there are amendments to meeting notice provisions, including a requirement for parish councils and parish meetings to send out details of the remote meeting when public notice is given.

1. RULES OF DEBATE AT MEETINGS

Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.

A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.

A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.

If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.

An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.

If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.

An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.

A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.

If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman of the meeting.

Subject to standing order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.

One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.

A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.

The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.

Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate on the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.

Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except:

- i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
- ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke;
- iii. to make a point of order;
- iv. to give a personal explanation; or

- v. to exercise a right of reply.

During the debate on a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he is concerned by.

A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his decision shall be final.

When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:

to amend the motion;

to proceed to the next business;

to adjourn the debate;

to put the motion to a vote;

to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;

to refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration;

to exclude the public and press;

to adjourn the meeting; or to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory or legal requirements.

Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply.

Excluding motions moved under standing order 1(r), the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed 5 minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.

2. DISORDERLY CONDUCT AT MEETINGS

No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.

If person(s) disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or be excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.

If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

28. AMENDMENT DUE TO COVID 19

a New meeting regulations. On 2 April, the government published The Local Authorities and Police and Crime Panels (Coronavirus) (Flexibility of Local Authority and Police and Crime Panel Meetings) (England and Wales) Regulations 2020. These regulations came into force on 4 April 2020.

NALC has also responded to the government, feeding back issues relating to the regulations – this information can be found in the engaging with government section.

Understanding the regulations:

- NALC has a legal briefing on our interpretation of the regulations
- Lawyers in Local Government (LLG) and the Association of Democratic Services Officers (ADSO) have also produced guidance on the regulations on how they affect all local authorities – NALC was pleased to contribute to sections related to local councils.

b Guidance for holding meetings remotely:

NALC has produced guidance for local councils on how to hold effective remote council meetings. This also includes information on how to approach hybrid meetings, where some individuals attend in person and others join remotely.

Northamptonshire County Association of Local Councils has created a video to demonstrate what a virtual meeting of (the fictional) Great Pipping Parish Council would look like. It is a training video designed to show how a chairman would deal with councillors joining by computer and phone, declarations of interest, public participation and confidential items where members of the public and press are excluded.

The National Centre for Cyber Security (NCSC) has issued updated guidance to help individuals and organisations choose, set up and use video conferencing safely and securely. We have received a large number of queries related to Zoom. If you do choose to use Zoom, there is a range of free information and training to help people use the platform which is definitely worth having a look at to help get you started. A recent update on the Zoom blog has been guidance on hosting public meetings including how to keep uninvited guests out of your meeting.

c Other activity related to remote council meetings:

- NALC has been pleased to be involved with a number of national organisations to provide guidance and support on holding remote meetings.

- NALC engaged with the Crown Commercial Service and Zoom regarding a discounted package. This discount is only available for a minimum of 10 licences per subscription, so is unlikely to be appropriate for many local councils, but if you would like to find out more do contact your county association.

d Health Protection Regulations and council meetings

The Health Protection (Coronavirus, Restrictions) (No. 2) (England) Regulations 2020 (“the 2020 Regulations”) were made on 3 July and came in to force on 4 July.

The 2020 Regulations refer to gatherings in private dwellings, vessels and land that is a public outdoor place. No more than 30 persons can participate in a gathering in such places. Public bodies are able to exceed the 30 person gathering restriction in premises used for the operation of a public body if certain conditions are met. They are:

- the gathering has been organised by the public body;
- the person responsible for organising the gathering has carried out the requisite risk assessment (which would satisfy the requirements of regulation 3 of the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999), and;
- the gathering organiser has taken all reasonable measures to limit the risk of transmission of the coronavirus, taking into account the risk assessment.

In determining whether all reasonable measures have been taken to limit the risk of transmission of the coronavirus, any guidance issued by the government relevant to the gathering in question must be taken into account.

NALC’s view of the 2020 Regulations is that (i) public body can include parish councils and parish meetings and (ii) they do not prevent gatherings of more than 30 people (indoors or outdoors) if the above conditions are met. However, NALC remains of the view that remote meetings are the best way of holding meetings at this time.

The above guidance applies until the further direction of the Secretary of State and the Regulations will be reviewed every 28 days, the first review being carried out by 31 July.

e Impact on year-end accounts and audit

Following NALC’s engagement with government around local council audit timeframes final regulations were published on 7 April and will come into force on 30 April. These extend the statutory audit deadlines for 2019/20.

The Joint Practitioners Action Group (JPAG) has produced updated flow charts and step-by-step guides related to the changes to audit time frames. These can be found on our JPAG webpage.

We are pleased the government has listened to the sector and recognises the need for an extension to the timeframes for audit. This extension is for two months and not the minimum of at least three months which NALC called for in our response to the consultation on the draft regulations.

On 22 April, Max Soule, Deputy Director, Local Authority Accountability and Oversight at MHCLG has emailed a letter to all local authority chief executives in England, confirming the extended audit deadlines for 2019/20, just in case they were not aware through other sources. The letter is also being published on Gov.uk to ensure that it is in the wider public domain.

Will elections be affected?

The Coronavirus Act, which the government introduced on 19 March, postpones any elections that were due to be held in May 2020 until 6 May 2021. Any other electoral events, such as the council or parliamentary by-elections, will also be postponed until May 2021.

NALC has published a legal briefing, which gives guidance on the implications for local councils of the Local Government and Police and Crime Commissioner (Coronavirus) (Postponement of Elections and Referendums) (England and Wales) Regulations 2020. This includes commentary on the prohibition on holding elections to fill casual vacancies until 6 May 2021.
